Eric,

I talked to Dave Adams, the manager at Sirenusa. I explained that we needed all the porous objects removed to outside the units etc. and he agreed to do that, however he has to hire people to do this as he has only a bookkeeper and concierge, so it most likely won't happen today. He also has a "space" problem i.e. where to put the large items such as the mattresses which won't fit on the balconies. He said he'd work out something. Mr. Adams promised to keep me updated on his efforts. In the meantime Geoff is out somewhere buying wash tubs.
